San Diego, CA - April 21, 2006 - DSD is pleased to announce that Accounting Technology Magazine has named DSD Business Systems as one of its Top 100 VAR's for 2006. Accounting Technology annually lists the Top 100 accounting software VAR's nationally, based on revenues. Robert W. Scott is Editor of Accounting Technology and can be reached at Robert.scott@sourcemediacom.com. A full copy of the Accounting Technology article can be viewed online at <http://www.webcpa.com/article.cfm?articleid=19228&pg=acctech>.

Doug Deane, President of DSD Business Systems, said, "All our staff is proud to be named to the Top 100 for the third consecutive year. This is truly a team accomplishment, and it speaks volumes about the way that we treat our clients, our own staff, our vendors and our fellow resellers. DSD will benefit significantly in 2006 and 2007 from our new facilities and from strategic alliances and partnerships which are forthcoming. DSD will bubble toward the top of that elite list in the coming years."

DSD Business Systems is one of the leading suppliers of business software solutions in Southern California. As an exclusive Sage Software solutions provider, DSD provides accounting, financial, distribution and manufacturing software and services as well as custom enhancements, hardware, networking, Internet development, security and technical services.

DSD has been a Sage President's Circle award winner for over ten consecutive years and has been nationally recognized as a Pacesetter and as a Top 100 VAR firm by Accounting Technology Magazine. For more information, visit www.dsdinc.com.
