

Five Useful Tips to Help Your Employees Embrace Change

- Tip 1: Build a case for change. Identify the impact a new accounting system will have on your people – the benefits and consequences of changing and not changing.
- Tip 2: Keep your employees in the loop by providing information and clarity about what is happening, when changes will take place and how their jobs will be impacted.
- Tip 3: Invest in employee training to make the transition easier.
- Tip 4: Give employees time to make the change and adjust to the new approach.
- Tip 5: Support your managers as change makers. Provide them with the tools necessary to successfully implement change.
